THE LAUNCH OF CUMBERNAULD THEATRE AT LANTERNHOUSE

SATURDAY
2 OCTOBER
FROM 10.00AM

On Saturday, 2 October, Cumbernauld Theatre Trust will have great pleasure in opening our doors in a one-day celebration and exploration of our new home!

Join us from 10.00 am for Let The Light In: a day of exploration, performances and conversations; reintroducing ourselves and sharing our new venue with you.

We will have tours and insights around the building, activities for families and little ones, taster sessions from our creative learning programme and a sing-sational performance, co-created and made with incredible local talent!

Our doors may have been shut for a while now, but we have been far from idle. Our team has been getting everything ready behind the scenes; kitting out the new theatre auditorium and studio, meeting our new neighbours, making work with local groups and producing the shows that will fill these beautiful spaces.

But before we kick off with our first Cumbernauld Theatre production, we wanted to make sure that we had invited the most important people into the building, to come and tell us what they think. And that is where we need you!

Our theatre was founded by people like you, who believed in the profound benefits the arts can have on society, and who volunteered their time and money to create a local arts centre in an abandoned set of farm buildings. Now, thanks to your continued support, we have a purpose built, state of the art building and we can't wait to share it with you.

With Test and Trace still in place, your safety is our top priority and therefore we are limiting the number of people for this event. So, please keep a watchful eye... as individual invitations to join us for our launch day will be making their way through the letterboxes of Cumbernauld this summer.

We can't wait to see you all again soon.

ELAINE LENNON

Award-winning singer-songwriter, educator & TEDx speaker Elaine Lennon originally created the online version of The Homebird Sessions at the start of the lockdown in 2020 with the aim to connect with and talk to people who can open both hearts and minds through music.

We are delighted to be hosting The Homebird Sessions with Elaine Lennon and guests at Lanternhouse - a must for music fans and writers everywhere. In October and November, Elaine will be in conversation and concert with Yvonne Lyon and Boo Hewerdine in our Studio Theatre, as they take turns to share their songs from their latest albums and personal stories from their journeys into music. Our first Homebird Session will welcome Yvonne Lyon, one of the UK's brightest and best singer/songwriters. Yvonne's new album Growing Wild is a stunning collection of timeless songs, arguably her finest to date.

Featuring twelve original tracks, including co-writes with Beth Nielsen Chapman, Boo Hewerdine, Julie Lee and poet Stewart Henderson, Yvonne continues to demonstrate her strength as an evolving artist, unafraid to paint with a broad and eclectic musical palette. Her tenth studio release does not disappoint.

Studio Theatre

*Tickets: £10.00 / Concession: £8.00

The second of our Homebird Sessions will welcome Boo Hewerdine, one of the UK's finest singer-songwriters. As lead singer of seminal band, The Bible through to his subsequent solo work and long-time collaboration with Eddi Reader he has become something of a national treasure.

His latest album 'Before' was recorded with supreme Danish multi-instrumentalist Gustaf Ljunggren Boo's only collaborator on the set. 'Before' is also a timely reminder of the power of simplicity, Hewerdine's lyricism set to a subtle backdrop of vintage instrumentation.

ROMEO and JULIET

ROMEO AND JULIET

One of the most famous and classic stories of all time, this 21st century Romeo and Juliet reminds us that acts of love and sacrifice can bring hope and change in the face of darkness.

This new interpretation, designed by an outstanding creative team and directed by award-winning director Kate Nelson, imagines Verona as a walled and gated city; where citizens are denied the freedom to choose who they love and how they live and where their destinies are dictated by those at the 'top'.

Physically charged and energetic in pace, this is an urgent and powerful retelling of the timeless story following the plight of Romeo, Mercutio, Benvolio, Tybalt, Juliet and Paris and the tragedy that ensues when Romeo and Juliet are denied the freedom to love each other.

Combining storytelling, movement and splashes of humour, Waves is about having the courage, desire, and determination to swim against the tide of expectation. An extraordinary tale of a life fully lived.

Described by The Guardian as "... a Dadaist riposte to Strictly Come Dancing", Extremely Pedestrian Chorales is a collaborative performance created by choreographer and performer Karl Jay-Lewin and composer Matteo Fargion and presents the commonplace experience of the pedestrian as an act of beauty, meaning and gentle comedy.

Within a series of short dances and with just a dash of punkish irreverence, simple movements are rhythmically and spatially structured by translations of JS Bach's famous Chorales.

The Scotsman says:

"... perfectly capturing the rhythmic power and grandeur of the mighty JS Bach in all his exhilarating glory"

DE ROSA

Friday, 29 October 2021
at 8.00pm

Studio Theatre
Tickets: £10.00

Lanarkshire rock band De Rosa is songwriter Martin John Henry (vocals, guitar), James Woodside (bass) and Neil Woodside (drums) and released three acclaimed studio albums to date: Mend, Prevention and Weem, on Glasgow's legendary labels Chemikal Underground and Rock Action Records.

Although heavily influenced by the alternative rock music of the 1980s and 1990s, De Rosa's sound also references other subgenres of music, with elements of slowcore, Scottish folk and electronic music. More recently, De Rosa have used more synthesisers and drum machines in their live set, as their sound moves away from the guitar-based rock of their debut material towards a fusion of electronic and traditional styles.

Mojo Magazine says:

The kind of parochial majesty you might encounter if Pixies reworked The Go-Betweens' Before Hollywood for a doc about the social history of Lanarkshire. Yes, that good.
